*Windamir Development Named SBA Region IV
Small Business Prime Contractor of the Year*

Windamir Development, Inc. today announced that the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) has named the company its 2010 Regional Small Business Prime Contractor of the year. The SBA Region IV Award represents the states of Georgia, Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, and Mississippi.

"We are honored to have been selected for this prestigious award," said Windamir President Kimberly Glover. "This award is recognition of the commitment Windamir's employees have made to consistently provide the highest level of service, quality, and value to our customers."

Windamir, headquartered in McDonough, Georgia, provides a wide range of construction services to Department of Defense and other federal customers throughout the Southeastern United States. This small woman owned and SBA 8(a)-certified business has contracts ranging from $25,000 to $5 million projects. Since its inception in 2004, Windamir has grown from 7 to 60 employees and has established a proven track record of quality performance demonstrating a broad range of capabilities including design-build, traditional construction, and infrastructure projects as well as specialty services including airfield, electrical substations, and anti-terrorism force protection.

The Small Business Prime Contractor of the Year award honors small businesses that have provided the government and industry with outstanding goods and services as prime contractors. Dobbins Air Reserve Base in Marietta, Georgia nominated Windamir for this award which will compete for the national award in Washington, DC during the 2010 National Small Business Week.
